Emergenza

112

YOU ARE A VICTIM OF VIOLENCE IF ...

He offends you, humiliates you ("you are worth nothing")

He scares you ("you are a bad mother, I'll take your children away")

He hits you, kicks you, pulls your hair, punches you

He pushes and slaps you

He threatens you or your children

He threatens your freedom, also economic

He demands love or sex against your will

He destroys objects to frighten you

He damages your things, he prevents you from working

He locks you in a room, he controls you (appearance, friendships, salary)

He isolates you (from friends and relatives), he follows you, he blackmails you

He calls you constantly to offend you

He torments you with obsessive text messages...

Phase of TENSION

Phase of AGGRESSION

Phase of REMORSE/ "HONEYMOON"

THE CYCLE OF VIOLENCE

It is a continuous
VARIATION of VIOLENT and LOVING behaviour

This switching is the TRAP
from which it is difficult to free oneself

YOU'RE NOT ALONE!

There is a territorial anti-violence network, consisting of public and private social and health services and the police force.

In the Marche region, there are 5 provincial anti-violence support centres, an emergency housing, women's refuges and shelters.

Protection programmes also involve the minor children of the woman victim of violence.

The victim of violence can benefit from free legal protection.

The victim of violence, who is an employee in a protection programme, is entitled to a 90-day leave (to be taken within three years) compensated at 100 per cent.

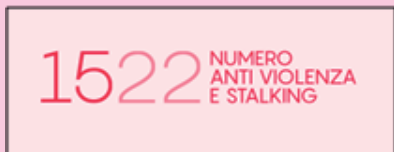

The foreign woman victim of violence can obtain a specific residence permit.

The victim of violence is exempt from medical visit fees for services received related to the violence.

WHOM CAN YOU ASK FOR HELP?

At the Police Force, the nearest Social Service, the Anti-Violence Support Centre and Anti-Violence Network helpline
